The Adjutant General telegraphed to the Secretary of War, asking if Government aid, as in the Alabama overflow, can be extended to the sufferers on the coast of Texas. Verdict on the Fire Ladder Accident.

Meeting of the Creditors of Henry Clews & Co.

Proceedings of the Insurance Commissioners.

NEW YORK, September 24, 1875.

The National Insurance Convention continued its session to-day, President Chapman in the chair. Mr. Heald, General Manager of the Home Fire Insurance Company, of this city, was invited to address the body. He said it was unwise to tax insurance companies' stock in the various States in which they were domiciled. He believed the tax was a misnomer. If they were to be taxed, let it be in proportion to the privileges they enjoyed. All surplus money made by insurance companies last year in the State of Michigan was absorbed in taxes alone. In 1871 the losses of companies exceeded their premiums by $23,000.

Dr. Lambert, of a popular life insurance company of this city, then delivered an address on the fictions and realities of life insurance. He contended that all cases of frauds perpetrated by the companies should be fought out to the end, that a great deal of speculation, lottery and gambling still exist among them, and that this spirit of speculation came over from England to be exploded here.

The insurance convention held an executive session this afternoon in the Fifth avenue Hotel. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Samuel B. Row, of Michigan; Vice President, Oliver Pillsbury, of New Hampshire; Secretary, Sephen H. Rhodes, of Massachusetts. Executive Committee—Commissioners Smith, Forster, Welsh, Stedman and Nye.

The Committee on Legislation made an amended report, which was referred back to the committee to be printed and distributed to members of the convention for their deliberate examination during the ensuing year.

The Committee on Blanks reported a balance sheet blank, which was adopted, and copies were ordered to be sent to every insurance company in the United States, with a request to the different officials to use this blank for the returns of December, 1875.

The convention then adjourned to meet to-morrow morning.

Henry Clews & Co.

A meeting of the creditors of Henry Clews & Co. was held yesterday, at the office of Edgar Ketchum, register in bankruptcy, under an order of the United States District Court, to show cause why they should not be declared bankrupts and discharged from all their debts and claims. Objection was made by a number of creditors to their discharge in bankruptcy, and several specifications, in opposition were filed. Among the claims presented was one of over $100,000 by Mr. Cheever. A number of notices of appearances were put in after which the meeting adjourned.

Verdict on the Fire Ladder Accident.

The jury in the inquest on the fire ladder accident found a verdict that the break was due to inferior materials and faulty construction of the ladder. The Fire Commissioners are censured for not hoisting the ladder practically before allowing it to be used, and its future use condemned.

Accident to Trapeze Performers.

A man and woman at Robinson's Hall last night fell head foremost to the floor from the ceiling, while attempting trapeze movements. Both are believed to be fatally injured.

The Floral Display at the Cincinnati Exposition.

CINCINNATI, September 24.—The attendance at the Exposition to-day and evening, estimated by the sale of tickets, is nearly 40,000, the attraction being the grand floral display. Three hundred square feet were occupied by florists with beautiful designs in floral work and cut flowers. The grand premium, $400, for the best general display of floral work and cut flowers, was awarded to Thos. Knott & Son, of this city, their floral work being a number of agricultural implements made of beautiful flowers. Among the display was a fountain nearly eight feet high, an "eighteen light" chandelier, a large bell and globe, and other fancy articles. For the best display of the greatest number of varieties of cut flowers, the first premium, $100, was awarded to James Vick, of Rochester, N. Y., whose display covered nearly one third of the entire space.

Freight Tariff from Chicago to New York.

CHICAGO, September 24.—At a meeting of the general freight agents of Eastern lines in this city to-day, it was resolved to adhere positively to rates on a basis of thirty cents on fourth-class per hundred pounds from Chicago to New York, and equivalent rates to other points. It is also under consideration to make a tariff, to take effect on the 1st of October, as follows: Fourth class—35 cents for grain, 30 cents for box meats, 40 cents for bulk meats, 45 cents for seeds, 50 cents per hundred pounds, and 70 cents per barrel on flour, from Chicago to New York, with the regular differences to all other points. There will also be a relative advance from St. Louis and other southwestern points, taking effect on the same day.

The Black Hills Negotiations.

RED CLOUD AGENCY, Neb., September 21, VIA SIDNEY, Neb., September 21.—Contrary to expectation last night, no council was held to-day, chiefly on account of this being the day beef is issued to the Indians, who kill it themselves. As nearly all Indians attending the council draw rations here, the employes at this agency have been very busy yesterday and to-day. It is hardly probable that the proposition to lease the Black Hills country will be accepted. The Indians themselves do not look favorably upon it, and the "squaw" men are using all their influence against it. The council is to be resumed at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

SPEEDY JUSTICE.

Lynch Law at Bellefontaine, Ohio.

The Murderer of Miss Laughlin Taken from Jail and Hung.

HORRIBLE DETAILS OF THE FIEND'S CRIME.

CINCINNATI, September 24.—The Gazette's Bellefontaine special says: Mrs. Schell, the wife of the man arrested yesterday for the murder of Miss Laughlin, near Belle Center, on Thursday, was arrested and testified before the Coroner to-day that her husband had told her that he had intended to ravish Miss Laughlin and kill her afterwards, that their ride on Thursday was planned for that purpose, and that her husband threatened to kill her if she followed him when he went into the bushes with Miss Laughlin. She says he returned in about two hours, stating that Miss Laughlin fought so hard that he did not succeed in ravishing her, although after he had stabbed her she said "Don't kill me, Jim, I won't resist any more." But he feared she would tell, and so killed her, threatening also to kill his wife if she told of it. Mrs. Schell also testified to other crimes committed by her husband. The affair causes the most intense excitement. Business is suspended, and it is reported that several hundred citizens of the surrounding country are coming into Bellefontaine to-night, determined to lynch Schell. Many wagons loads have already arrived. The Sheriff has summoned a strong posse, who are guarding the jail, but trouble is expected before morning.

Later.

About three hundred men attacked the jail at Bellefontaine, O., about twelve o'clock to-night, battered down the doors, dragged Schell out, and hung him to a tree. The guards made no resistance. Schell protested his innocence of the crime.

Ho, For the Great Sale—An Excellent Opportunity to Secure Bargains — Sale Positive and Without Reserve

Almost every one is fully acquainted with the business activity and the superior tact of Mr. J. A. McKelvy, proprietor of McKelvy's Bazaar, in collecting for his patrons the most elegant products of eastern manufactories and offering them at prices much below that of their home cost. This is due to the fact that, in making his purchases, he uses no paper whatever in payment of his bills, but takes the money in his hand, which produced before the eyes of a dealer has a wonderful and irresistable effect to lower the price of all commodities. And again, his purchases are always of such an extent that he is allowed the discount to the trade, all of which goes into the pockets of his customers, in the shape of good bargains. Bear in have now to call attention to a great auction sale at McKelvy's Bazaar, on Wednesday, September 29th, at 10 o'clock A. M., in which the assortment of carriages, harness, furs and blankets, is unusually large and elegant. Of Carriages, there are for sales Coaches, Coupes, four and six passenger Rockaways, Jump seats, Top and Open buggies, jaggar and buckwagons, both new and second handed, of every description. Of Harness, there will be found a large lot of every style, all of which must be sold, let the prices be what they will. Parties in need of harness will lose should they fail to attend the sale. And as now is the time to secure comforts and wraps for the winter, he has secured for the benefit of those wanting such articles a great variety of furs, consisting of Mink, Wolf, Fox es, and Angara—to which is added a superb collection of robes in great variety of style and material, chief among which are English, Oxford, Lambskin, Cheviot and every variety of American, English and Scotch robes. His assortment of blankets is without a parallel in the line of such goods for extent, variety and beauty of ornament. Blankets—plain, lined and ornamented with every tasteful device; blankets, forty inches deep with straps and facing, both for out door and stable use. Whether you need any of the above articles, a visit to this place will amply repair the time thus spent, as an inspection of the goods must be productive of pleasure and gratification. Startling, But True.

That over half a million persons die of consumption each year in this country, and that one half of this number contract the dread disease by wearing an inferior quality of boots and shoes. Those who would preserve their health should buy boots and shoes of Wm. Martin, 208 Federal street, as he keeps on hand and manufactures to order, a stock that is unsurpassed for excellence. The wearing of Martin's boots and shoes will have the effect to materially decrease the doctor's trade, and therefore they do not put his goods. But they are good notwithstanding,

Are Your Feet Large?

Large feet are a source of annoyance to many ladies and even gentlemen, and yet if their possessors would but patronize the Boot and Shoe House of Taggart, No 129 Federal street, Allegheny, they could have their clumsy feet made to look neat and graceful by wearing of his boots and shoes, as no difference what the form of the foot, Taggart has its fit. He has every imaginable shape of the same number, and therefore parties can rely on being exactly fitted, which can not be done in nine-tenths of our shoe stores.

He was visited by thousands during his walk, each one of whom was charged ten cents to see the show.

....An Irishman at the depot yesterday had a lively skirmish with his pocket. He had filled one of his breeches pockets with parlor matches, a bag of tobacco, and a miscellaneous collection of articles. By some accident the matches got warmed up, and the man had to be put out. Pat hurriedly threw everything from his pocket on the platform, and pawed them around with his feet much to the amusement of the crowd. Pat has another hole in his pocket now.

....At a meeting of the Allegheny Street Committee, held on Thursday night, Mr. Johnson, Secretary of the Tradesmen's Institute, asked permission to erect a temporary fence along the line of South avenue in front of the Exposition grounds. The contract for re-grading and re-paving Franklin street, from Fremont to Marquis alley, was let at $588 55. The P. A. & M. street Railway was ordered to have Rebecca street repaired.

....George Fisher, an employe at Haggerty's cigar factory, on Smithfield street, attempted to jump on a moving freight train yesterday morning, at the south end of the Fort Wayne Railroad bridge, when he slipped and fell and one of his feet was run over and crushed. He was taken to the office of Dr. Walter, where his wound was dressed, after which he was removed to the residence of a relative on Chestnut street, Allegheny.

....Messrs. Hughes and Flinn, who were appointed by the Water Committee to examine the claim of Contractor Walter for extra compensation for straightening and repairing the stone wall around Hiland reservoir and preparing it for the reception of the coping, met last night in Municipal Hall, and after slight investigation arrived at the conclusion that the contractor is required by the specifications to perform that work, and, therefore, he is not entitled to additional pay. The committee will report accordingly.

PERSONAL.

....Mr. A. W. Erwin, of Allegheny, returned yesterday from New York with a large assortment of goods.

....Judge Parke, General Manager of the Industrial Exposition, will arrive home to-day, after a visit to the Chicago and Cincinnati Expositions.

CRIME IN THE CITY.

Brief Mention of Minor Offenses and Petty Criminalities.

An information was made before Alderman Gallagher yesterday, by Michael Dean, of the Humane Society, against Michael O'Neill, charging him with cruelty to animals, in encouraging dog fighting. Warrant issued.

RICHARD AIKEN lodged an information before Squire Millikan a day or two ago, charging Mrs. Moran and Mrs. Smith with receiving stolen goods. The plaintiff averred that the defendants had received certain goods from him, which were stolen, and accordingly an information was lodged against him for larceny. The two women deny the charge in toto. Aiken was jailed for a hearing.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 116¾.

PERSHING'S vote against organizing and arming the militia to oppose invasion of the State rises up against him and "will not down."

The Dispatch is attempting to play second fiddle to the discordant tunes of the Post, and the people do not wonder. Birds of a feather, etc.

WE would ask Pershing's organs whether he considers the Thirteenth amendment to the Constitution abolishing slavery legally adopted? He voted against its ratification.

WE want our farmer friends to recollect that Pershing, while in the Legislature, dodged voting on the bill for the removal of the tax from farming lands. Dodging is equal to a negative vote.

SEVENTY-FOUR ex-Rebel officers have been elected to Congress from the South. Not one Tory after the Revolution ever sat in that honored seat, and but one in all the land, was ever afterward elected to any office of honor or trust.

THE Democratic organs in this city do not like to be remembered of the fact that Pershing cast his vote against the bill giving our soldiers in the field the right to vote. The boys in blue do not forget it, however. "By their fruits ye shall know them."

PIOLETTE is going to stump the State, they say. We trust, if he comes this way, he will tell us all about the Fishing Creek Confederacy, which he and Buckalew organized during the war, up in Columbia county, to resist the draft. Would that be "flaunting the bloody shirt?"

PERSHING, during the war, voted against the act providing for the payment of the interest on the State debt in legal tender notes, on the grounds that the act authorizing their issue was unconstitutional. He then demanded that the State should pay nothing but gold. He now belongs to a party which is for unlimited inflation, and a wild expansion of the currency.

THE Post and Dispatch both dislike personal records. Well, no wonder; as they have nothing agreeable of their own to refer to, they are opposed to the system of judging a man's future by his past. They are consistent in this, as a stirring up of old reminiscences in their cases could only result in damaging reflections. So of Pershing and Piolette. Cover their past.

THE Inter-Ocean, having about run out to the end of its string on the Black Hills gold, now turns its attention to romancing about that delightful land of the Sioux. It talks about the Indian graves, the dark green mountains of Dacotah, the floral valley, and other items, very much like a home sick youth yearning for his mother. Better give it up, good neighbor, and come home. The people have got done thinking about the Black Hills, and their Quixotic gold fields. Give us some new sensation.

IN proof that vice is hereditary, the Prison Association of New York has given the results of a search through the genealogy of a family of noted criminals. The ancestry of over eight hundred convicts has thus been distinctly traced, and of th se but twenty-two have acquired any property, and eight of these lost all they had made. All the rest were criminals of the worst sort, against whom all the crimes in the calendar could be charged. This family began a century ago with one vagrant, and truly the record is a fearful one.

WHEN persons accept of positions of honor and trust, it is as little as they can do to give the affairs they are called on to guard, their attention. We are aware that the position of City Councilman is a laborious and complicated one, when well attended to; and being without pay, usually suffers plenty of fault-finding. But those who accept such positions should not permit their private affairs to seriously interfere with a proper discharge of their public duties. The one should be regulated to suit the other, and the interests of the city should in no case be neglected. Great injustice and injury are frequently caused by neglect of councilmanic duties.

THE sermons of Mr. Moody, the noted revivalist, are calling out resentment among some of the New England churches, notably the Unitarians. The gospel he preaches is broad, liberal and conservative. In his native town, Northfield, Mass., he has stirred up the Rev. Sunderland, a prominent and worthy minister, in that faith, who dissents from Mr. Moody, both as to his methods and his teachings, taking strong grounds of opposition to both. In speaking of it a contemporary says: "The discourse of Mr. Sunderland has created a most profound impression in Northfield, and since its delivery nothing else has been talked or thought of. It is anticipated that Mr. Moody will reply next Sunday, and that a rejoinder will follow from Mr. Sunderland. The latter clergyman is a young man, very popular in the town, and his literary and theological qualifications are of an unusually high order."

IT is exceedingly gratifying to find the unusual interest taken in our forthcoming Exposition by persons from distant cities. The rush, for some days past, among those from a distance to find space to exhibit their goods is something remarkable, and might be taken as a lesson by some of our slow-plodding industries. Said the writer to one of the largest manufacturers of his class of goods West of the mountains, "Are you going to exhibit your superb goods at the Exposition?" He replied, "Oh, well, I guess not; our trade is out West; not at home." "Well," we replied, "do you exhibit at Chicago, or Cincinnati, or elsewhere?" "No," he answered. "Well, then," said we, "we are not much surprised to hear you say that two new similar establishments to your own have recently been started 'out West,' and that your business had fallen off, during the last year or two, one-half." We must wake up to the attraction and benefits of these displays. Hundreds of thousands of visitors throng them, who, in turn, talk about them to as many others, and thus a vast advertisement of one's business and wares is obtained. Our manufacturers and business men are backward in this regard, and we shall be much mistaken if the Exposition does not open their eyes somewhat.

ADMITTED.

"There was but one hearty and spontaneous burst of applause during the whole evening, and that was when the speaker mentioned the honored name of President Johnson, who so gallantly fought Mr. Morton and his Radical compatriots. The applause was so genuine, so unexpected, and to Mr. Morton so out of place, that he interrupted and checked it by pitching his voice to the highest key, and continuing his remarks before the hand-clapping had ceased."

The above, taken from the Post's account of the Morton meeting, is, in plain language, false from the beginning to the end. It is not much matter whether the applause which greeted the eminent speaker was hearty or spontaneous, out of place, or what not; those who were there know that the meeting was in full and cordial sympathy with the speaker, and expressed themselves so by frequent and honest applause. Just why we refer to the matter at all at this time is this: The Post, and some other sheets, deprecate any allusion to what they call the "bloody shirt business," in this canvass, and insist that the people are sick and tired of any reference to the history of parties or the records of men during war times. Now, then, the very best proof possible that this is false, is the "hearty" expression of "genuine applause" which greeted Senator Morton's allusion to Andrew Johnson's patriotism, at a time when every other Democratic Southerner in Congress was showing himself a traitor to his country and a perjured villain. This it was which caused the vast audience to applaud the sentiment of the speaker, when he spoke of the dead statesman's exalted patriotism and love of his country at a time when all his Southern colleagues were proving untrue. It proved, beyond all dispute, that the people of Allegheny county, never tire of hearing of the services of the true and faithful Unionists, through whose efforts the Nation's life was saved, and the rebellion put down.

The Post, after hearing unwilling testimony to this, in the above extract, makes a poor attempt to ridicule the same sentiment by saying, he told all the old stories about "Southern outrages" (which is not true), and the pensioning of rebel soldiers and all that class of "miserable trash." Verily, our Democratic friends are fearful that Republican orators and journals will hurt their own cause by "flaunting the bloody shirt." If such attempts will hurt our cause, why do the Democratic organs advise us so patronizingly to cease our efforts in this regard? Why do they not rather urge us on to our own destruction? Democracy would fain hide its record of rebellion; but we imagine the good, union-loving people of these communities will not soon forget the aid and sympathy the rebellion received from Northern Democrats, no more than they will fail to greet with hearty applause the mention of the good deeds of a true patriot, though he afterwards did join the Democratic party.

Davis and William H. Bowman for conspiracy in defrauding the State. He entered a plea of not guilty, and gave bail in $5,000.

R. K. TURNER, who has been charged heretofore with extensive forgeries of deeds, was taken from Quincy, Ill., to Cattaraugus, Mo., on Thursday, on a requisition from Governor Hardin. He is charged with forging a deed to about $20,000 worth of land, two years ago, and it is expected that some startling developments will be made at his trial, which will begin next Monday.

DURING the latter part of last Fall two men, named Deason and Strader, had a difficulty at Forest City, Ark., in which Deason shot Strader in the arm, causing it to be amputated. To revenge himself Strader went to Deason's house last Thursday night to shoot him. Having reached the house, Strader went to one of the windows and fired a shot gun and pistol, and missed Deason, but emptied the contents of his gun into a young man nineteen years of age, named Thomas Hofton, killing him instantly. Strader then fled the country, and is supposed to be making his way to North Carolina, where he formerly resided.

THE case of Adler & Co., of St. Joseph, Mo., charged with emptying certain barrels of whisky without canceling the stamps, came up on Thursday, in the United States District Court for the Western District of Missouri, now in session in Jefferson City. Quite a number of witnesses were examined, and, as far as the case went, the testimony showed that about two hundred barrels of spirits, received from Sheehan & Son's distillery, were emptied at Adler & Co.'s rectifying house, and some barrels were sent to the distillery with the stamps unobliterated, refilled with spirits, and again sold with the old stamps upon them, thus defrauding the Government out of some $8,000.

CHURCH UNION.

Methodism and Episcopalianism.

In the proceedings of the Diocesan Convention on Wednesday a significant remark was made by the Rev. Mr. Dresser, to the effect that there were 1,500 towns (townships) in Southern Illinois, and that while there were but eight Episcopal churches and five clergymen in all these towns, there were Methodist and Baptist churches in every one of them. In other words, the Episcopalians have only eight churches in the southern part of Illinois, and the Methodists have 1,500. This rather startling disproportion in the number of the two churches is not a source of wonderment to the Rev. Mr. Dresser alone, but to all careful observers of the progress of religious growth. Why should there be such a disproportion? In point of fact, why should there be any separation between these two Churches? The Methodist Episcopal Church is but an offshoot of the Episcopal. The dogmatic partition between them is so thin that it might be removed at any time without serious consequence to either or without attracting any special wonder. The polity, forms, and creed are substantially the same. The Methodist and Low Church Episcopalian clergyman might exchange pulpits at any time without collision or dissonance, or harsh treatment of religious prejudices. When John Wesley organized his sect, his intention was not to leave the Episcopal Church (in fact he never left it), but to reform and revivify it, to correct certain abuses which he conceived had grown up in it, to spiritualize it, and extend its usefulness. The Methodist Episcopal Church still holds the name of the parent organization, its creed, and its forms; and whatever changes have been made in its forms since Wesley's time have been made in the direction of Episcopalianism.

The question has been mooted, talked about, and written about, why these two Churches should not reunite, and the result has been earnestly hoped and looked for by many in both Churches. It would only be a reunion of the branches of the same tree. No radical changes would have to be made in either Church. There would be no necessity of trimming or pruning, or newly adapting canons or articles. The two would sit together just as nicely as they did of old, and the aristocracy of the one combined with the Democracy of the other would present a powerful opposition to the forces of sin. The Methodist Church would gain the "Apostolic Succession" in the Bishopric which it lost at the time of the Wesleyan secession, it not being possible for Wesley to be a Bishop without the laying on of hands. Both Churches would gain great advantages. The Episcopal Church would gain a spirit of lively piety and aggressive propagandism, of earnest, untiring work, a spirit of push, in fact, which would vastly extend its usefulness. It would reach the masses of the people which it fails to do now. On the other hand, the Methodist Episcopal Church would gain an intellectual power and refinement, and a standard of scholarship which it does not now possess, except in certain of the large city pulpits. The union, therefore, would reach the highest and the lowest classes. Its effects would be felt not alone in the large cities, where wealth and scholarship abound, but in the little country villages, and far off on the frontier in the new settlements, where the Methodist missionaries now penetrate by the side of their only competitors, the Roman Catholics. It would make a mighty gain in preaching power and influence. Such a union may yet be brought about, and appears all the more probable from the fact that the reunion of kindred churches is now the tendency of the day.—Chicago Tribune.

BOLD BURGLARY.

A House on Locust Street, Allegheny, Entered.

At an early hour on Thursday morning a very bold burglary was committed at the residence of Mrs. Fleischman, on Locust street, near Bidwell street, Allegheny. On the evening previous Mrs. Fleischman and her daughter put up everything being in order, the doors and shutters all having been properly secured. On awakening in the morning what was their surprise to find the room occupied by them in the greatest disorder, as was also the adjoining room, which is usually occupied by Mrs. Fleischman's son, who is a partner in a gent's furnishing establishment on Fifth avenue, gone east on the day previous. On making an examination they found that all the articles of clothing, some jewelry and a small sum of money had been taken out of their room, but did not know what had been taken out of Mr. Fleischman's room. The ladies think they must have been scared and left either or chloroform by the burglar, or they would certainly have been awakened. Clothing belonging to the son of the house is thought to be in possession of the burglar. The police did some very fine hauling, but did not find the missing articles. Up to the present time no clue to the burglar has been found.

SANITARY ITEMS.

Meeting of the Board of Health Yesterday—Infectious Diseases—The Leaguer of Sheak Hollow.

A meeting of the Board of Health was held yesterday afternoon at its rooms in Municipal Hall. The members present were Messrs. Sagle, Mitchell, Backofen, Thomas, Arthurs, Asdale and Graham. The bill of the Allegheny Board of Health for three weeks' care of Fred. Kohn, a small pox patient, was approved and ordered to be paid. The matter of redistricting the city into health districts was referred to a special committee of three.

Health Officer Sagle reported that scarlet fever is largely prevalent on the South Side, of tapping closets instead of cleaning them, and thereby evading the law. He said the law was a dead letter in the expression of the opinion of the Board regarding the matter. Dr. Thomas stated that such a practice was eminently calculated to spread infectious diseases, and that it should be stopped forthwith. Mr. Gray was accordingly instructed to prosecute all persons guilty of these unsanitary acts.

Some time was spent by the Board in discussing contagious and infectious diseases and the propriety of instructing the Health Officer to report to the corporate in his weekly report the number of such cases in each ward of the city, so that the Board can ascertain in what sections of the city the sanitary character are prevailing to the greatest extent. It was finally decided to refer the matter to a sub-board, in order that it may be as nearly correct as possible the Health Officer was directed to prepare a circular containing an extract from the Act of Assembly defining the powers of the Board of Health and providing for the imposition of a fine of fifty dollars on every physician, who fails to report to the Board, when required, the number of infectious diseases under his care. These circulars are to be sent to all the doctors before the 1st of October.

The session was concluded with a few pertinent remarks from Dr. Asdale regarding the deplorably filthy condition of Sheak's Hollow, the number of disease-breeding nuisances it harbors. The stream that courses through it is filled with the remains of immature swine, the entrails and offal annually killed in the slaughter houses that enhance the beauty of that locality and vault the air with perfume. The butchers of that section will doubtless soon have the Health Officer as well as Superintendent of Sewers and Drains on their track since their memory of the fetid truth in the "Legend of Sleepy Hollow," wherein Brom Bones chases Ichabod Crane.

THE BALL AND BAT.

The Xanthas Win the Third Game With the Iron City—An Interesting Contest This Afternoon.

The third of the series of games of base ball between the Xanthas and Iron City clubs, played at Union Park yesterday afternoon in the presence of a very large audience, was won by the former, making for it two out of three games. The second game between these clubs was played on the Xanthas' solely by their careless playing and they recognized the necessity. If they would maintain their reputation as a first-class club, of being the winners in the final game. They went to work in earnest and the result is shown in the score. Both clubs did some very fine batting, but that of the Xanthas was particularly excellent. They made thirty-five base h is and the Iron City boys five. Lone caught behind the bat in place of Curry and had but one passed ball. He took every foul that came within reaching distance, and but one was he allowed to pass between his hands. Mr. McGeary, of the Sewickley club, umpired. The score is as follows:

What promises to be one of the best games of the season will take place at Union Park this afternoon between the Xanthas and the Iron City, of Youngsport, Ohio. The latter club claims the championship of the Buckeye State, and is really a first class nine, but it will play to-day with Hall and Hall, pitcher and catcher of the Neshannocks, On Wednesday, at Columbus, they defeated the B. clevel's by a score of 9 to 4 the summary of which game is as follows:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9

Buckeyes.	0	0	0	1	0	2	0	0	6—9

On Monday the Mutuals will play the Downers, and on Tuesday the Buckeyes will play the Downers. On Thursday the Downers and Iron City play their second game, and this afternoon the Downers play at Youngstown with the Lake club.

The Braddocks club which went on the excursion train to Washington on Thursday morning, played the Washingtons at the Nationals castial yesterday, and were defeated by a score of 8 to 2.

THE CITY COUNCILS.

Select Branch Finally Gets a Quorum—Preston Road Ordinance Passed—Interest on Penn Avenue Bonds—The Names of Absentees to be Reported.

The third attempt this week on the part of Select Council to get a quorum was successful this afternoon. Clerk Morrow called the roll and announced that six members were necessary to make a quorum.

Mr. SHIPTON requested the Chair to send an officer for absentees. The President stated that he had no power to do so. After a wait of a few minutes a quorum was secured. The gentlemen present were Messrs. Ahlborn, Aiken, Arnholt, Atkinson, Rodgers, Blood, Brauns, Brown, Bruce, Buckley, Chalfant, Clark, Clemens, Darlington, Evans, Fetterman, Gobthorpe, Harrison, Fahnestock, Hunter, Kelly, Kerr, Liddell, Littell, Metzgar, Finley, Morse, Neil, Murray, Musgrave, McConnell, McGilvery, Negley, O'Neil, Hayden, Scully, Shipton, Taylor, Weldon, and President Scott.

The minutes from June 14, to July 16, 1875, were read and approved.

Mr. SHIPTON, from the Finance Committee, presented an ordinance authorizing a temporary loan of $40,000, with which to pay interest on bonds issued for the improvement of streets under the Penn avenue act. The rules were suspended and the ordinance passed finally.

Also, an ordinance authorizing the investment of the monies now in the Treasury as the proceeds of bonds issued and sold by the city of Allegheny, entitled "An ord nance authorizing the issue of bonds for the purpose of redeeming matured or maturing bonds therefrom issued by the city of Allegheny, under the act of Assembly of 2d of April, 1872," passed September 7, 1874. Section second provides that the bonds issued in accordance with the first section shall be sold whenever it becomes necessary to provide for the payment of the bonds for which said sinking fund was originally provided, such sales to be made by the City Controller under the direction of the Committee on Finance, upon such terms as they may direct, except that the price be not less than par and accrued interest.

Mr. SHIPTON, in expounding the ordinance, said that it was only taking the money now in the City Treasury, which is applicable to the redemption of South Side bonds, investing it in the bonds of the city and placing them in the Treasury instead of money. The South Side bonds draw eight per cent interest per annum, and the holders are disposed to part with them until they have matured. He stated that the ordinance was not a violation of the law which provides that the sinking fund shall not be diverted, for the reason that this money with which it is proposed to pay the bonds when interest does not comprise part of the Sinking Fund.

Mr. METZGAR thought different, however, and claimed that it was diverting the sinking Fund from the object for which it was established.

Mr. SHIPTON replied that it was a very plain and altogether lawful proceeding on the part of the bonds to be purchased will be placed in the City Treasury. In lieu of the money now there, where they will remain until the maturity of the South Side bonds, when they will be sold and the proceeds devoted to the original purpose of redemption. It was merely taking so many thousand dollars out of the Municipal Treasury and replacing it with an equal amount of bonds.

After some further discussion the ordinance was passed finally, Messrs. Braun and Metzgar voting nay.

Mr. BREED, under a suspension of the rules, offered the following:

Resolved, That the Clerk of Councils be and he is hereby instructed to ascertain and report to this Councilfor its information, and at its next meeting, the number of times that each number of Select Council has been absent from regular and called meetings since the first meeting in January last, or, in case where members have been elected since that time, the number of times absent since their election and the number of times present.

Dr. GRAHAM thought the resolution went too far, and he was the more opposed to it because of the short vacation there had been no compl aint. Since it ended some of the members have been derelict in duty and they should be censured, but he didn't think it right to go beyond the vacation.

Mr. AIKEN favored the resolution, and said it ught to be followed up by an enforcement of the Act of Assembly which gives Council the power to declare vacant the seats of members fail to be end.

It was finally passed, twenty-three voting aye and ten nay.

Mr. FETTERMAN presented a petition for the location of a street between the intersection of Woodville street and the Saw Mill Run road and the intersection of the latter and Southern avenue, in the Thirty-second ward. Referred.

Mr. BRAUN, remonstrance against a change of the location of Forbes street. Referred.

Mr. BRAUN, petition of James Hastings for $1,-204 61, with interest from October 31, 1874, being the balance due for the grading and paving of Thirty-eigh t street, from Penn avenue to the Iron City Park. Referred.

Mr. SAWYER, resolution requesting the committee having the matter in charge, to take measures looking toward increased facilities for the reporters of the press. Passed.

Also, a resolution providing that the crossing on the west side of Wood s reet, at its intersection with Fourth avenue, be put in good condition. Referred.

Mr. AIKEN called up the ordinance for the improvement of Sixth street, South Side, from Bingham's to Alter streets. It was passed.

Ordinance for a sewer on Locust alley, from Meyran street to Ravine street. Passed.

Mr. GOBTHORPE offered a resolution for the repair of the board walks in the Seventh s reet district. Referred.

Mr. WELDON called up an ordinance for the grading and paving of Church alley, from Bank to Thirty-sixth street. Pass d.
